

Liberal Arts

Although not established at KMITL until 2016, The Faculty of Liberal Arts has a history dating back to 1977. Originally founded as the Department of Languages and Social Studies in the Faculty of Industrial Education, it has delivered academic programs, fostered research activities and offered academic services in the fields of language, humanities, social science and tourism. It has also played a crucial role in promoting local art and culture through academic activities. Through its long history of academic excellence, the Faculty is one of the most highly regarded Liberal Arts schools in Thailand.

Programs	Bachelor	Master	Doctoral
Japanese	●
English	●
Innovation in Tourism and Hospitality	●
Applied Linguistics – English for Professional Purposes		●

The objectives of the Faculty are:

1. To create innovations in Language Education, Humanities, Social Science, and Tourism.
2. To provide superior education to produce graduates of high capability and decency with specializations in Language, Humanities, Social Science, and Tourism.
3. To produce research studies, innovations, and academic services and to be a driving force in achieving academic excellence.
4. To cultivate faculty members and staff with potentials in language and culture.
5. To promote local art, culture, and indigenous knowledge through academic activities.